Next Week's Focus

Language Arts- Our comprehension skills are character analysis, compare and contrast, main idea and details, summary, retell, and sequence.

Writing- The students will write a book review of Charlotte's Web.

Math- The students will continue to learn about solving one-step word problems using multiplication and division. They will begin solving two-step word problems using the four operations. Be sure your child is practicing their multiplication math facts.

Bible- Our focus will be on salvation and being born again in Christ.

Social Studies- We will read Roxaboxen. It is about children building their own community. They will receive their assignment for the Fall Premiere.
